

Pamukkale University
Disabled Student Unit Coordinatorship
Course Partner Commitment (Course Partner Form)

First of all, thank you for wanting to be a course partner. You are taking the same course with a student who needs note-keeping, note-sharing and reading services because of a disability case. During the course partner system, you will have the opportunity to participate in activities that will be organized by Pamukkale University Disabled Student Unit Coordinatorship at the end of the year together with the student you are partnering with.

You must read and fill out the relevant fields of your responsibilities stated below in this commitment and sign them.

BASIC PRINCIPLES

- To attend the lesson regularly, taking notes.
- To share notes with the relevant student in a predetermined way (in photocopying, photo or electronic form).
- To help the relevant student, if s/he has received permission from the instructor, to take an audio recording of the lesson and take a photo of the board.
- Not to share information about the identity and inadequacy of the student with whom you are a course partner.
- To inform the relevant student and unit about the courses that you cannot attend as a result of any trouble.
- To maintain a relationship within the framework of respect and professionalism with the student who will be the course partner.
- To inform the student to whom you give service and the unit about changes in your contact details .
