UNIVERSITY GENERAL ORGANIZATIONAL CHART

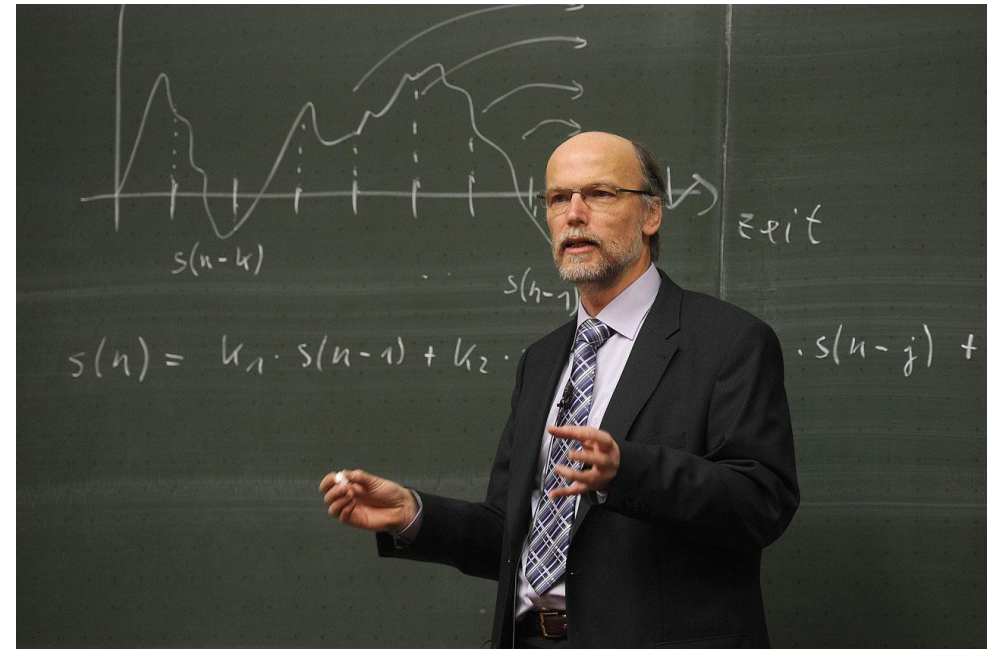

UNIVERSITY LIFE

- ✓ Your university life will be quite different from your high school or secondary school life.
- ✓ Throughout your life, you will find the greatest number of options—in terms of academic, social, athletic, and cultural opportunities—during your university years.
- ✓ It would be useful for you to take the advantages of these opportunities.
- ✓ Be curious. Ask questions. Tell your opinion.
- ✓ Do not let the fear of being judged prevent you from taking advantage of these opportunities.

UNIVERSITY LIFE

- ✓ Every faculty member at the university has dozens of students other than you.
- ✓ Keep in mind that, beyond teaching, a faculty member may have scientific research to conduct, collaborative work with academic or administrative units, projects to oversee, and meetings to attend.
- ✓ If possible, ask your question by an e-mail.

UNIVERSITY LIFE

- ✓ Before sending your email, be sure that you read it at least once. Only send it once you are certain that you have expressed yourself clearly.
- ✓ If the problem is too urgent to be addressed via email, you might consider going to the faculty member's office.
 - ✓ When entering the office, you should first knock on the door and ask if it is a convenient time.
- ✓ For an effective communication, prepare your question in advance and try to express yourself as briefly and clearly as possible..

GOOD TO KNOW

✓ Research Assistant:

This is the first person to consult for the information regarding issues related to the operations of the relevant academic department.

✓ Supervisor:

This is the first person to consult for resolving issues related to academic matters, such as course registration or the adding and dropping of courses.

✓ Head of Department:

This is the authority responsible for managing course distribution and preparing class schedules; they also handle matters—such as obtaining medical leave or freezing registration—that cannot be resolved with the academic advisor, acting through the advisor to facilitate these processes.

GOOD TO KNOW

✓ Department Secretary:

This is the unit where applications are made regarding matters such as registration under special circumstances (excused registration), make-up exams, taking courses from other institutions for summer school, and errors in course coding.

✓ Editorial Office:

This is the unit where documents requiring review by the administrative board—such as those concerning course exemptions, add-drop requests, or grade corrections—are processed; it is also the office to which petitions regarding surname changes are submitted..

Academic calendar is a schedule that includes information such as dates for registration renewal, adding or dropping courses, orientation programs, deadlines for academic matters, start and end dates for examinations, and official public holidays.

PUSULA SYSTEM

Pusula System, is a platform that enables access to all applications using a single username and password. You can use this system to select your courses, check your grades, and view your emails.

To enter: <https://pusula.pau.edu.tr/>

You can explore student organizations under the SKS (Department of Health, Culture, and Sports) menu and select the ones you would like to join. Once you have become a member, do not forget to follow these organizations on social media and attend their introductory meetings.

REGISTRATION RENEWAL

Students will carry out their initial course registration themselves. Throughout the course of their studies, they are also required to renew their registration at the beginning of both the fall and spring semesters, within the time frame specified in the academic calendar.

Course registration:

After logging in to <https://pusula.pau.edu.tr> with your username and password, you can complete your course registration via the appropriate menu.

You can watch a video on how to register for courses on the Pamukkale University YouTube channel.. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cQ2n1IOMPoY>

Add and drop can be made at the beginning of each term

SUGGESTIONS

If possible, do not use a mobile phone to register for your courses.
(Your registration may fail in the event of an internet interruption.)

Please update your contact information, such as your email address and mobile phone number, by entering it into the Pusula System.

Following the Instagram accounts of the university (@pauedutr), SKS (@pauks), and PDREM (@paupdrem) will ensure you stay instantly informed about the latest developments.

TUITION FEE

Tuition fee varies depending on the department, the type of instruction, and the student's status.

For detailed information, please visit: <https://www.pau.edu.tr/oidb>

Students who do not pay the fee on time cannot register.

REGISTRATION TO COURSES

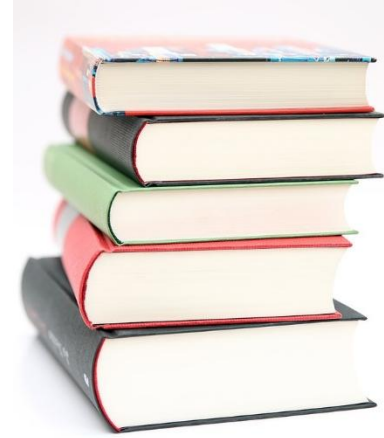

At the beginning of the semester, students are required to add to their schedule any courses they must repeat due to previous failure.

This process is completed via the Student Information System on the PAÜ Pusula platform.

If you cannot register for your courses on time for any reason, you must complete your course registration during the add-drop period.

COURSE SELECTION

The following order of priority MUST BE TAKEN INTO CONSIDERATION when selecting courses:

Courses from previous semesters that were taken but resulted in a failing grade,

Courses from previous semesters that have not been taken before,

Courses from the current semester that were taken but resulted in a failing grade,

Courses from the current semester that have not been taken before,

Courses from the semester immediately following the current one that were taken but resulted in a failing grade,

Courses from the semester immediately following the current one that have not been taken before.

It is mandatory to register for at least 20 credits worth of courses in both the fall and spring semesters.

To select a course with a prerequisite, a student must have previously taken the required prerequisite course(s) and earned at least a passing grade (including conditional passing grades).

COURSE SELECTION

The maximum number of credits a student may take in a given semester—in cases where the number of credits they are required to take exceeds 30—is determined by their academic grade point average (GPA) as follows:

For students with a GPA below 2.25, the maximum is 30 credits;

For those with a GPA between 2.26 and 2.99, the maximum is 36 credits;

For those with a GPA above 3.00, the maximum is 42 credits.

If the number of credits a student is required to take in a semester is less than 30, they may take a maximum of 30 credits.

Students may not attend classes for which they have not properly registered within the designated period, nor may they take examinations for such courses; should they do so, any grades obtained will be voided.

COURSE ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS

The attendance requirement for courses and practical sessions is determined by the instructor in charge at the beginning of the semester.

For repeated courses, if the attendance requirement was met in a previous semester, it is waived, provided that the student takes the midterm examinations.

Regular attendance in your courses has a direct impact on your academic success.

FOR PADAM

Turkish Preparatory Education Undertaking

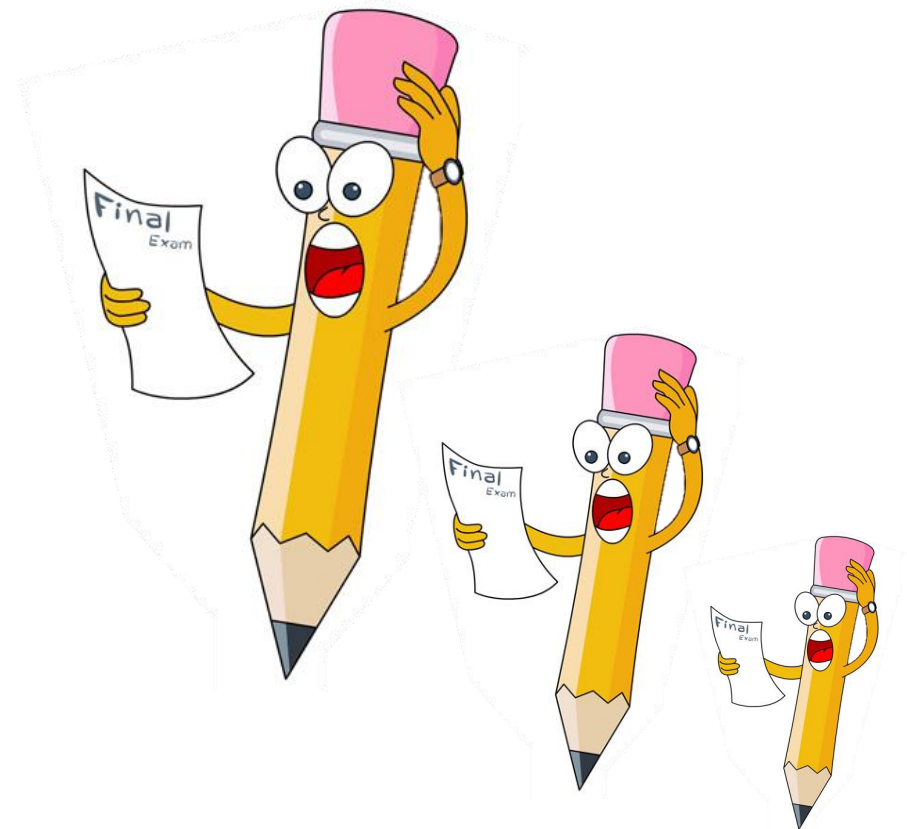

- 1- I accept, declare and undertake that my scholarship will be cancelled if I have a total of 100 hours of unexcused absenteeism during Turkish education and Academic Turkish education,
- 2- that if I have 20 hours of unexcused absenteeism per month, my monthly scholarship payment will be made with a 25% deduction for 3 months
- 3- that if I am ill, I must submit an official sick leave report to YTB and the relevant TÖMER official,
- 4- that if I leave Turkey for any reason without permission from YTB, my scholarship will be stopped,
- 5- that Academic Turkish lessons are compulsory and I will participate,

EXAMINATIONS

Examinations are divided into two main categories: in-term examinations and general examinations.

In-term examinations—which include quizzes, midterms, and make-up exams—are conducted to evaluate a student's academic performance throughout the term.

General examinations, on the other hand, are designed to assess a student's overall success in a course; these include end-of-semester/term examinations, resit examinations, three-course examinations, additional examinations, and exemption examinations. With the exception of end-of-semester/term and resit examinations, the results of these general examinations serve as the sole basis for determining a student's final grade in a course.

EXAMINATIONS

These examinations may be conducted in written, oral, or both written and oral formats, and/or may include a practical component.

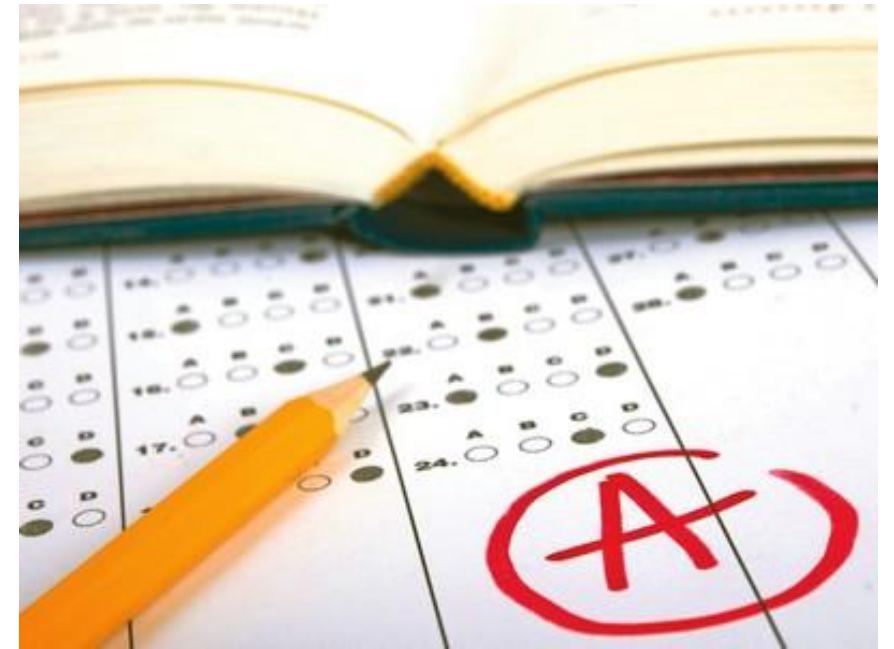

In the event of failing a course, you may choose between a make-up examination or a summer school session, in accordance with the Academic Calendar.

According to the Disciplinary Regulation for Students in Higher Education Institutions, cheating—or facilitating cheating by others—is punishable by suspension from the university for one semester.

COURSE FINAL GRADE

A student's level of success in a course is determined by a 'Course Grade.'

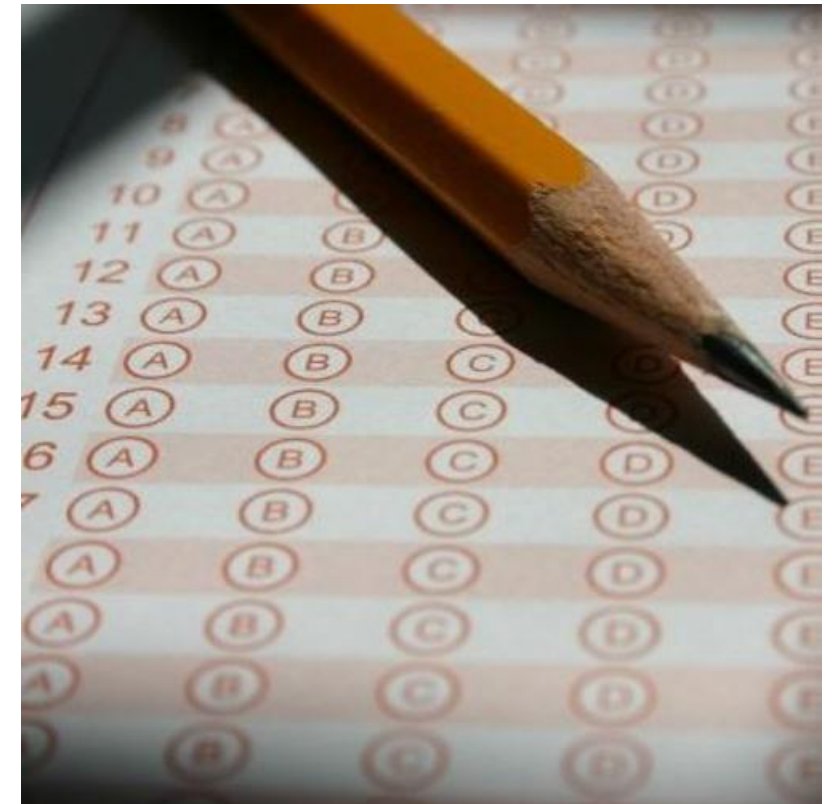

The course grade is derived from an assessment that combines the student's performance throughout the semester (midterm exams, assignments, practical work, etc.) with the results of the final examination.

COURSE FINAL GRADE

The contribution of each in-term grade to the overall course achievement score is determined by the respective instructor, provided that the total contribution falls within the range of 30%–50%.

The contribution of the final examination to the overall course achievement score is determined by the respective instructor at the beginning of the term, provided that it falls within the range of 50%–70%.

COURSE FINAL GRADE

If the class size is less than 20, an absolute grading system will be applied.

If the class size is 20 or greater, the grading system to be used will be determined based on the class average.

- If the class average is 60 or above, an absolute grading system will be applied;
- if the class average is below 60, a relative grading system will be applied.

ABSOLUTE EVALUATION TABLE

For conditionally passing grades to be accepted as successful, the student's academic grade point average (GPA) must be at least 2.25 prior to graduation.

An 'F2' grade indicates failure due to absenteeism and is assigned a grade point value of 0.0.

Letter grading system	100-point grading scale	4.0 grading scale
A1	95-100	4.00
A2	90-94	3.75
A3	85-89	3.50
B1	80-84	3.25
B2	75-79	3.00
B3	70-74	2.75
C1	65-69	2.50
C2	60-64	2.25
D1	55-59	2.00	* Cond. Passes
D2	50-54	1.75	* Cond. Passes
F1	0-49	0.00	* Fails
F2	Unattended	0.00	* Fails

COURSE FINAL GRADE

A student who receives an F1 or F2 grade in a course is required to repeat that course in the first semester it is offered.

However, if the repeated courses conflict in the semester schedule, the student may, upon the decision of the relevant administrative board, be exempted from taking one of these courses.

It is not mandatory to retake non-credit courses (or their equivalents) in which a student has failed.

A course for which a passing grade has been obtained cannot be retaken.

COURSE FINAL GRADE

There is no requirement to retake courses for which a conditional passing grade has been received during the first semester they are next offered.

Students who have received a passing grade or a conditional passing grade in all their courses, but whose academic grade point average (GPA) is below 2.25, are required to retake a selection of the courses they previously passed with a conditional grade—choosing the specific courses themselves—until they reach the 2.25 GPA threshold, which is a requirement for graduation.

EDUCATION SUPPORT SYSTEM EĞİTİM DESTEK SİSTEMİ (EDS)

Through this system, you can access course materials uploaded by the instructor of the course you are taking.

You can access the EDS via the PAÜ Pusula Information System.

The screenshot displays the PAMUKKALE ÜNİVERSİTESİ EĞİTİM DESTEK SİSTEMİ (EDS) website. The header includes the university logo and name, a login status indicator ("You are not logged in. (Log in)"), and a language selector ("English (en)"). The main content area is titled "Site haberleri" (Site News) and features two news items:

- Giriş Problemleri by PAU EDS - Perşembe, 26 Eylül 2013, 12:46 ÖS. The text states: "Şifrelerinde Türkçe karakter bulunan kullanıcılarımız girişlerde problem yaşamaktadır. Sorun ile ilgili çalışmalarımız devam etmektedir. Bu süreçte kullanıcılarımız Pusula sistemi üzerinden şifrelerini Türkçe karakter içermeyecek şekilde değiştirerek sisteme giriş yapabilirler." (Our users with Turkish characters in their passwords are having problems logging in. We are working on the problem. In this process, our users can change their passwords from the Pusula system to not contain Turkish characters and log in to the system.)
- Ders Birleştirme Ekranı by PAU EDS - Salı, 24 Eylül 2013, 6:04 ÖS. The text states: "Eğitimciler için ders birleştirme seçeneği eklenmiştir. Lütfen <http://eds.pau.edu.tr/moodle/birlestir/> linkine ulaştıktan sonra gerekli yönergeleri takip ediniz." (A course combination option has been added for teachers. DISABLED STUDENT UNIT

The goal of the Pamukkale University Unit for Students with Disabilities is to ensure that everyone has access to all spaces, services, and information resources located on campus.

Initiative to Create an Audiobook Archive for Students with Visual Impairments

An initiative has been launched to create an audiobook archive within our library, aiming to facilitate access to course materials for visually impaired students studying at our university. The audiobook project is being carried out by the Pamukkale University Department of Library and Documentation, the Coordination Unit for Students with Disabilities, and the Special Education Student Society. All volunteers who would like to lend their voices to these audiobooks are encouraged to follow the process outlined on the website.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

Part time jobs for students

These are students employed in temporary roles within academic or administrative units; they are not classified as regular employees.

Applications are accepted every October, and additional calls for applications may be issued in February if the need arises.

A COURSE: ORIENTATION 101 (ORY 101)

- All students enrolled at Pamukkale University will have online access to this program.
- A 14-week adjustment program, delivered via the EDS (Education Management System), has been developed to enhance students' academic and psychological resilience.
- The program aims to help students cultivate essential life skills.
- Faculty members from the Faculties of Education, Medicine, Economics and Administrative Sciences, Architecture, Sports Sciences, and Humanities and Social Sciences have prepared videos containing advice for students—covering topics such as:
 - Coping with uncertainty and anxiety;
 - The importance of balanced nutrition and physical activity;
 - Adjusting to university life.

STUDENT SUPPORT UNIT (ÖĞRENCİ DESTEK BİRİMİ,ÖDB)

What is the Student Support Unit?

It is a student-centered entity that places students at its core, aiming to provide them with comprehensive support through the development and implementation of various projects. In this respect, student support units serve as a testament to our university's student-centered approach and represent a significant added value that distinguishes our institution from others.

The Student Support Unit was established to ensure that students receive:

academic,

psychological, and social support,

and to facilitate their access to social assistance services.

Each faculty, college, or vocational school has a dedicated commission operating under the Student Support Unit.

Each commission reports to the Student Support Unit's Executive Board. This board consists of faculty members—primarily those with expertise in mental health—as well as administrative managers from various departments who oversee operational processes.

The Student Support Units have established a separate tab on their respective websites, created dedicated social media accounts, and set up email addresses to facilitate communication with students.

In some academic departments, student representatives are elected; these representatives attend unit meetings to convey the requests and complaints of the student body.

FINANCIAL LITERACY

You are entering a period in which you are in control economically, as in many other matters.

Based on the concept of financial literacy, we would like to emphasize the importance of conscious credit card use and making a distinction between needs and wants in your expenses.

You will need to watch your budget while making unnecessary expenses. Remember that you will have to pay for your expenses at the end of the month, even if it is a credit card.

If you are going to make a purchase in installments that will exceed your monthly budget, decide by considering how paying installments for months will affect you.

BOTANICAL GARDEN

Established on a 10,600-square-meter site, this botanical garden stands out as the first and only one of its kind in the region, boasting 850 different plant varieties. The garden, which attracts hundreds of visitors daily, aims to further increase its botanical diversity. Features such as the indoor plant collections housed within a 140-square-meter glass greenhouse, the Hayrettin Karaca Oak Grove, a garden for medicinal and aromatic plants, a conifer collection, a rock garden, a "palm island," and various endemic plant species that thrive in diverse climatic conditions all draw the admiration of those who visit.

ZERO WASTE ON CAMPUS

In the interest of a greener campus and a sustainable environment, Pamukkale University has installed "Mobile Waste Collection Units" at two locations on campus: one in front of the Central Cafeteria and the other in the outpatient clinic area of the university hospital.

Furthermore, 2,200-liter capacity, hydraulic-system underground waste containers—which are resistant to wear and tear and feature a 100% leak-proof design—have been installed at 22 different locations to prevent unpleasant odors and visual pollution.

ZERO WASTE ON CAMPUS

You will be attending classes in different classrooms each day. Please keep in mind, however, that these classrooms are also used by many other students besides yourself.

When leaving a classroom, you must dispose of any trash—such as tea glasses or other items—in a waste bin; please do not leave them on the desk.

Likewise, in hallways, study areas, canteens, restrooms, and outdoor spaces, please make use of the nearest available waste bin.

PEDESTRIAN PRIORITY ON CAMPUS

According to the campus traffic regulations, vehicles are required to come to a complete stop before pedestrian crossings and must yield the right-of-way to pedestrians wishing to cross.

No vehicle may be driven onto sidewalks or pedestrian paths, even for a short duration, for the purpose of transport, loading, or unloading.

Career Planning Application and Research Center (KARMER)

Our university offers career support services. You can access these services by registering and applying through the "Yetenek Kapısı" (Talent Gate) platform and scheduling an appointment with KARMER. The KARMER website also provides information on upcoming career events and internship opportunities.

THE GOAL OF THE QUALITY ASSURANCE SYSTEM IN HIGHER EDUCATION

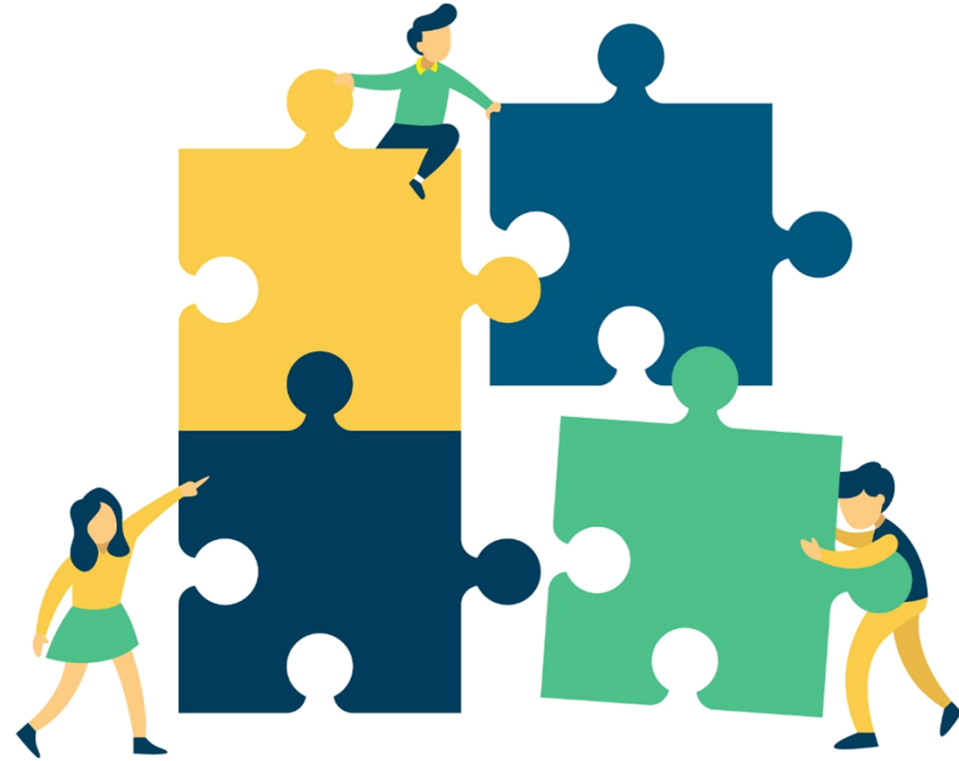

The most critical aspect of a quality assurance system in higher education institutions is ensuring that students attain the intended learning outcomes.

For this reason, students are among the most important stakeholders in higher education quality assurance processes, and their participation in these processes is expected.

HOW IS STUDENT PARTICIPATION?

- ✓ Faculty/Department Program Evaluation Committees
- ✓ Faculty/Department Boards
- ✓ Department Advisory Boards
- ✓ Student Representative on the Quality Commission
- ✓ Unit Quality Committees
