1*. The students who are in the "participant" status can have "Paper Awards", consisting of "Computers, Tablets, Clocks, Mobile Phones, Gift Cans and Other Samples", by preparing Congress Papers.

2*. The prize-winning undergraduate, postgraduate students and research assistants will be provided free of charge EYS education at the congress. The training content will be announced after the clarification of the EYS 2018 program.

3*. Internship; the students who are awarded at the congress will be entitled to settlement in Pamukkale University Social Sciences Institute's Graduate Programs in 2018. It will be determined according to the departments that the companies will determine. Accommodation, transport and meals will not be covered by the congress. It will be conducted within the scope of the "On-the-Job Training Program" by İŞKUR.

4*. Scholarship; the students who are awarded at the congress will be entitled to settlement in Pamukkale University Social Sciences Institute's Graduate Programs in 2018. Scholarships will be given within the amount determined by the companies. Scholarship will be based on academic averages of the students for the right and continuity of the scholarship. In case of continuity, scholarship will be terminated if the GNO of the student falls below 3.50. While continuing undergraduate education, students coming to the Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences of Pamukkale University by Farabi or horizontal transfer will not be evaluated within the scholarship.

5 *: Employment; the students who are awarded at the congress will be entitled to settlement in Pamukkale University Social Sciences Institute's Graduate Programs in 2018. Will be conducted within the scope of the "On-the-Job Training Program" by İŞKUR.

6 *: Participation Certificate; will be given to all students enrolled in the congress by making a distinction between the listener and the participant.

7 *: Students who receive a prize in the Congress but do not finish their undergraduate education can benefit from "Internship" only from "Scholarship / Internship / Employment".

8 *: Prize-winning undergraduate students will be eligible to enter the Graduate Programs of Pamukkale University Social Sciences Institute in 2018.

9 *: Prize-winning graduate students who are notified in the Congress will be eligible to enter or transfer to the Graduate Programs of Pamukkale University Social Sciences Institute in 2018.

10 *: Prize-winning undergraduate and graduate students and research assistants will be able to benefit from the EYS 2018 calendar (presumably July 2018) for the "Consulting" service. The "Consultancy" service which will be performed within the scope of the workshop program will last 2 days between the free EYS trainings and will be realized in Pamukkale by the congress meeting of accommodation, transportation and meals.
